“ I was a classmate of Cecil's at OCS being in the same platoon and training alongside him on a daily basis. He held the honor of being the only member of our class, OC-2 graduating as 2 Lts on 18 Apr 1958, that rose the rank of General Office. He attended several of our class reunions over the years and was well known to me as we both served under President Reagan on the Joint Chiefs of Staff at the same time. I can say Cecil was always respected as a man and soldier of sound judgment, calm serious refection and utmost trust. He led our OCS basketball team against others at the old gym at Ft Benning and was always a cheerful comrade. Cecil, I render a Hand Salute from your classmate and fellow member of the OCS Hall of fame. A life well lived.

Through his many years of service, he received numerous awards and recognition for his dedication to upholding and preserving the freedoms which we hold as American ideals. To the family, "he will be missed because of kindness and demonstrations of love for each of you". To his friends, "he will be missed because of his service and gifts to the community, and to his comrades he will be remembered because of his dedication and contributions to his country and his God".
