“ Al and Inez were the first people to greet me in May, 1980, when my young family and I first entered the doors of the Conroe meetinghouse (on Wilson Road) of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. These two wonderful people displayed Southern hospitality at its finest and Christian love in its most sincere form. I have missed Inez for many years now, and I will deeply miss Al until we meet again in Paradise. I fully expect that our association and sweet friendship will continue to develop and last throughout all eternity. I love Al White. Our mutual friend, Chuck Johnson, mentioned to me the other day, "Al was such a good man, always willing to help others, even when he had so little himself. [He was] always cheerful and fun to be around." I concur with Chuck's observation; Al is a prince of a man.

“ Grandpa - We will so miss your smiling face but I know we will meet again! I have so many memories of visiting you each summer in Conroe. You would let us play in your truck when you drove for Central Inc (if memory serves me right) and playing on the Loading Dock at Central. Larry would always get us in trouble (by getting hurt and bleeding) and they would make us behave finally. I remember watching the Old Testament on TV every Easter break with ya'll and that you and grandma kneeled to pray every night before bed! I remember sitting on your lap and talking about what I would be when I grew up and you always joking that I could be whatever I wanted as long as I made enough money to take care of grandpa!! Know I can count on you to meet me with a smile when it is my time to go!

Much love and kisses,
Cynthia Lee

“ My grandpa was a very special man. I took my first steps holding his hand in front to the Mormon Tabernacle in Utah in 1970. He loved deeply and sincerely and never ran out of hugs and I love you. He will be dearly missed and I am truly blessed to have had him for a great-grandfather. I love you, Grandpa Al. Sweet dreams.
