

Bennie Lee Spiller

August 9, 1924 - June 26, 2016

Bennie Lee Spiller, 91, passed away Sunday, June 26, 2016 in Conroe, Tx. A graveside service will be held on Wednesday, June 29, 2016 at the Madisonville City Cemetery at 11:00 AM. Lanier Stevens will officiate.

Bennie was born on August 9, 1924 to Ben and Occie Mae (Barrett) Barton in Madisonville, TX. She moved to Houston for business school and worked at the First National Bank of Houston. She met her husband of 54 years, Franklin, and they were married on December 26, 1947. Bennie was a good mother and a loyal wife, baking, cooking, cleaning, ironing, and serving every day. She became a very good beautician. She had a shop in her back yard and her customers were her friends forever. She worked in her beauty shop up into her 70's.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband and sister, Florence.

Survivors include her daughter, Cindy Aldrich; her son, Mike Spiller; her granddaughter, Jenna Brown; her grandson, Jason Jones; and great grandchildren, June, London, and Ben.

Special thanks to Jackie and Dawn at Chateau Woodlands care facility for their loving care during the later years of her life.

Cemetery Details

Madisonville City Cemetery

Madisonville, TX

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Mike Spiller - June 28, 2016 at 01:59 PM