

Celia (Cleere) Hamilton

November 11, 1952 - April 8, 2023

Celia (Cleere) Hamilton 70 of Midway, TX; passed away on Saturday; April 8, 2023 in Fort Worth, TX. Her family and close friends will celebrate her life at her home in Midway, TX at 3PM on Saturday; April 15, 2023.

Celia, who was known by her grandchildren as “Gundy” was born on November 11, 1952 in Madisonville, TX to James R. and Neely Ferrell (Sparks) Cleere. She dedicated her life to being a daughter, wife, mother, and grandmother. Celia loved to travel and cook and had a huge heart for helping and caring for others. She loved her grandchildren exponentially, attending every sporting event she could where she loved to harass the officials, especially if they made a call against one of her grandchildren.

Celia was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her loving husband of nearly fifty years, Max Hamilton. Their marriage was a true example of love and dedication, and they were inseparable after falling in love at a dance hall in Bryan, TX in 1972. Celia is also survived by her children, James Hamilton (Kristen), Crystal Adams (Jason), and Mary Katherine Nye (Roger); and her grandchildren, Ashlyn Hamilton, Kolby Adams, Grayson Nye, Kinzley Nye, and Madelyn Nye.
