

Chloe Rae McLain

June 9, 2008 - May 13, 2026

In Bryan, Texas, on June 9, 2008, Chloe Rae McLain was born to parents Shana McLain and Brandon Stubblefield. Just short of 18 years later, she departed this life from Houston, Texas, on May 13, 2026. Memories from those few years will live in scores of hearts, and Chloe's legacy as a donor will live on as health and hope for many yet unnamed.

Chloe was always fully "present," whatever the activity or occasion, and when she focused on a goal, she did it well. In younger years, she loved dance and gymnastics, which naturally led to cheerleading. More recently she had discovered wrestling, and she loved that, as well. She was a natural athlete.

On the other hand, she was a girly-girl who loved to sparkle and shine. Styling hair, applying make-up, dressing up, and accessorizing, whether for herself or others: she excelled in aspects of glamor. However, there was true sweetness beneath it all. Chloe loved spending time with her siblings and cousins, and she would be the first to volunteer to hold or entertain a baby. Finally, she doted on her pampered cat, 'Sugar.'

Chloe was preceded in death by grandfather Robert "Rusty" McLain.

She is survived by her parents; maternal grandmother Desia McLain, paternal grandparents Lamar and Susan Nealey; siblings Ruston and Zoiey McLain, and Jakayla Johnson; Godparents Kurt Johnson and Jerrie DiMaria; beloved Aunts and Uncles Robert McLain (Sherry), Sabrina McLain, Shelby Robinson (Markel), Lamara Patton (Baba), Shaleiyah Green (James), Tootie Nealey, and a host of cousins and other family members.

Pall bearers are Gaylon Drake, Robert McLain, Chance Peterson, Markel Robinson, Robert Lyons, Daniel Vincencio, Irving Alvarez, and Antonio Lucio.

Serving as ushers are Izaiya and Josiya Drake.

Memorial services for Chloe Rae McLain will be Sunday, May 17, 2026, at 2 PM at the Cattlemen's Pavilion on Highway 75 North in Madisonville, with prior visitation beginning at 10 AM.
