“ i don't know who or why the decision was made to not mention anything about the family that adopted, loved, & raised Cindy. Thomas Allen Buhler & Imogene Pilgreen Buhler adopted Cindy, in a private adoption, when Cindy was a baby. Both Tom & Jeanie, as well as some Aunts, Uncles, & even cousins, that were a part of Cindy's life, preceded her in death. Her brothers, Donald Ervin Buhler & Edward Eugene Buhler were teenagers when the Buhler's adopted their sister, Cindy. She is survived by both brothers, their children, and their grandchildren. All of which, knew & loved her as their "sister", "aunt", or great-aunt. She is also survived by a great-aunt, Tommie Christian. (sister to her mother) as well as numerous cousins who grew up accepting & loving her as their Aunt Jeanie's daughter. Cindy is also survived by her three children, Tish, Brandon, & R.J. She had numerous grandchildren as well. I mean no disrespect, it is the right of every adopted child & I understand the need or draw to know their biological family, I also, however, understand the hurt of the family that loved & raised her, as their own, at being erased from her life.

Please forgive me if I've left out anyone. It was not my intent.

I'm sure she had childhood friends that would have known her as Cindy Buhler, that are unaware that she has passed. She attended South Houston High School. As an adult, she was also known as Cindy Davis, Cindy White, & Cindy Lewis.

I know Cindy loved the family that raised her. She visited her brother, Donald, three weeks prior to her death. All families have ups & downs. We all have times when we are hurt, disappointed, & or angry with our family members. However, "Love conquers All".

Cindy will be remembered & missed. I want to send my condolences to all that loved her.
