“ Never can I explain what it has been like loosing you. I didn't just loose my mother but I lost my best friend. I can't count how many times I've dialed the phone to call you and it say no longer in service.And it hits me every time that you won't ever be there to answer again. It still isn't real. You grand daughter you where so excited to meet, Mariam Marie, but left to go to your permenate home in Heaven turned one. I just wanted to share how much you are missed and loved more then you'll ever know. I wish I wouldn't have took our time for granted. Cause Lord knows I was he'll on wheels and kept your hands full. We had our differences but no matter what it was we always had each other. Regardless if it was my wronging or yours our bond and love never stopped and still hasn't. You where a strong, caring, and loving women. I couldn't have asked for a better mother and best friend. Now we have a heak of a guardian angel. R. I. P Moma you will for ever be loved and missed. Your in my every thought. To those of you that read this don't ever take life for granted or the ones you love. You NEVER know when things can change and people be gone. If you love them tell them.
