“Granny was a true Angel from God who ahs taught all of us to love unconditionally. She left her heart, arms, and home open for all to enter with a warm meal and kind word. Granny loved gardening, cooking, and her family. I remember go to see her in the summer time she would always cook my favorite cookies, try to teach me sew, and working in the garden. We would sit on the front porch and shuck corn, snap peas, and talk about anything and nothing. We would walk to town and go to the post office. As I got older, she would let me layout in the sun in the back yard under the shade tree. What a wonderful women who would always tell each know you are a in Heaven in the wonderful graces of God.
