

Dollie Black

June 5, 1950 - August 27, 2014

Dollie Black, 64, of Bedias, TX passed away Wednesday, August 27, 2014 in Madisonville. Funeral services are scheduled for 10:00AM Tuesday, September 2, 2014 at Day Funeral Home Chapel. Derwin Youngblood will officiate. The family will receive visitors from 5-7PM Monday, September 1, 2014 at Day Funeral Home Chapel. Burial to follow in Hagan Cemetery in Crockett, Texas.

Dollie was born on June 5, 1950 in Houston to John L. Stephens, Sr. and Rena J. (Panama) Stephens. Dollie spent most of her adult life in Crockett where she raised her children and grandson, Bryan. For many years, she owned/operated Wholesale Auto Parts and Home Laundry in Crockett. Dollie moved to Bedias in 2000 where she loved being close to her family, but missed her friends in Crockett. She was very active with Madisonville High School Band while Bryan was attending. Dollie was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Charles Beach; brother, Bobby Stephens, Sr.; brother-in-law, Robert Jackson, Sr.; sister, Frances Steelman; step-daughter, Terry Black; and grandson-in-law, Brandon Hayes, Sr.

Survivors include her sons, Lee (PoJo) Crank, Jr. and wife Annie of Freeport, TX and Louis (Diddle) Black of Latexo, TX; daughter, Angela (Angie) Jansen and husband Bryan of Tenaha, TX; brother, John Stephens, Jr. and wife BJ; sister, Margie Jackson; sister-in-law, Shirley Key; grandchildren, Trey, Bryan, Emalee, Raylen, Josalynn and Drake; great grandchildren, Ryker, Brandon, Lilly, Caidi and Aiden; step-children, Barbara, John and Louie and their families; numerous nieces and nephews that she loved dearly as her own, especially Brooklynne her coffee drinking buddy and her caretaker Heather.
