“ Dad driving down the road on his four wheeler, his Yorkie Ellie sitting on the seat with him. It freaked me out at first, but they were both so happy, were both having so much fun. That picture in my head makes me smile thru my tears. His laugh, his crooked smile (such a charmer), his tears when he saw me, his tears when I was leaving and promised to come back soon. Until we meet again, love you Dad. Your Snooks.
