“ Aunt Edna Lee is a very special person. My fondest memory is when we would go to their house. She, Uncle Horace, My dad Cisrow, and my mom Bobbie would sit at the kitchen table and play Wahoo while we kids played. She is and always has been a perfect host to her family. Irene, Lee Ann and family I share in your sadness. We will all miss her. However she is with her family in heaven and I am sure she is happy. I am sorry I will not be able to make the service. May God bless her. May god give her and all of you peace.

“ My precious mother in law was one of a kind. She and I had a close relationship and shared a lot in common. She was always loving and kind to me and for over 35 years she and I never shared a cross word. It was all love and respect. That tells you what kind of lady she was. We tried our best to show her and her husband Horace good times, which created lots of good memories that I will always cherish. She was a second mother to me. Mom, thanks for all the memories we made and for loving me like a son. I will miss being able to hug and kiss you and tell you I love you to your face but I will think of you often. I'm glad you are now home with Jesus, the place all we believers seek. You are perfectly healed and dancing with the Lord. I'll love you forever. Love Pookee Bear ❤️🙏
