“ I will always remember that crazy look on your face each and everytime i would go into the room and say "Tio... I'm here"... and you would open your little eyes and give me that look like aww hell, here she comes again! It was so funny it even got to the point where Chelo would call me to the room because she just wanted to se that over and over again . I will always carry that with me. Tio I love you so much, and I will miss you very much, but you will never be forgotten
