“ Sorry fir your loss. We met Frank while they lived at Fernbrook RV Park 3 years ago and he was always so kind and helpful. A really sweet man who always spoke of his wife and family. He enjoyed his grandkids and looked forward to getting them to spend the night and his dog was his best buddy.Frank always had a smile in his face, especially when he knew his wife Pam was coming home. I was blessed to know him! May he celebrate with The Lord this year, for he definitely got his wings. May peace find you all in your time of need and during the holidays. We were honored to call him a friend.
