

Ida Jo (Lewis) Hall

May 20, 1941 - June 9, 2026

On June 9, 2026, Ida Jo (Lewis) Hall stepped into her heavenly home, surrounded by the family she cherished so deeply. Born May 20, 1941, in Dew, Texas, to W.W. and Doris Lewis, Jo grew into a woman whose life radiated faith, love, and quiet strength.

The oldest of six children, Jo learned early the value of responsibility, compassion, and family. She graduated from Madisonville High School in 1959 and accepted Christ at a young age, carrying her faith as a steady light throughout her life.

On August 12, 1960, Jo married the love of her life, Carl Gene Hall. Their 62 year marriage was a true partnership—rooted in devotion, laughter, and shared purpose. Together they raised three children who were the pride of their lives. When Carl's work took them across the country, Jo transformed every new place into a home filled with warmth and welcome.

One of Jo's proudest achievements was opening The Silver Spoon in Madisonville with Donna and Jason. Her homemade soups, pies, and comforting meals became a beloved part of the community, a reflection of her generous spirit and her gift for nurturing others.

Jo's hands were rarely still. She sewed, quilted, knitted, crafted dolls, and tended flowers that bloomed as beautifully as the love she poured into her family. Her creativity was not just a hobby—it was an expression of her heart. She now joins in heaven her parents; her beloved husband, Carl; sister and brother in law Betty Dean and John Dale Dean; brother in law Bobby Denman; niece Amy Denman; sister in law Michelle Lewis; and grandson in law Kenny Wells.

Those who remain to honor her memory include her children—Jeanie Jo Hensarling (Mark), Quincy Eugene Hall (Lucy), and Donna Rae Campbell (Jason)—along with her 10 grandchildren, 26 great grandchildren, 4 great great grandchildren, siblings, and a large extended family who adored her. Jo's life was a tapestry of faith, family, and creativity. Her legacy lives on in every life she touched, every meal she lovingly prepared, and every stitch of beauty she left behind.
