*I met James at my first visit to Shepler's in Houston and got through him a good and thorough view to the US construction market. During our intense work together over nine years we developed a great friendship . For me he was a man with great humour , focused and with a strong family relation. Thanks for all his help and kindness and the long lasting contact since then. Our heart is with his wife, kids and all family
With greatest respect for James,

“ James hired me on July 10, 1981. We worked together for many years. But even after we were no longer work partners, he stayed in touch to make sure I was getting up early enough in the morning. Other than my wife and immediate family, James has been the person who's I've had the longest running relationship with. And I think that's what he was best at - relationships. James was an important man in my life. Glad to have known him. Rest well and see you later. Barbara, Chris and Tiffany, you are in our prayers. May God's comfort be all around you.

“ I have worked with James for almost 20 years, and he was quite the character. He loved to come into the office and get people fired up... "you gotta keep things stirred up" as he would say with a big grin on his face. Helping James over the last few years with his projects I would go to ask him a quick question but would leave his office no less than 30 minutes later because he loved to tell stories. I'll miss our chats in the mornings and the phone calls.

It was such an honor getting to know him and his presence will definitely be missed in the office. Thanks for all the laughs Jarvis!

“ James and I worked together since 1972. It has been fun and exciting at times. We have done forming for nuclear power plants, bridges, buildings and many many more, but his expertise was sewage treatment plants for he was full of it! I will miss his tales of hunting trips and vacations in the north west like Yellowstone. He was a TRUE FRIEND. Take care and save a spot for me at the table Buddy.

“ It's raining here today. I told my wife I'd sure like to get a call from him. He'd say "Hey there young fella are we getting any of that rain? How are the cows and the kids?" I only had the pleasure of knowing him for a few years but I was sure proud to call him my friend. Thankful he was a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ and I'll see him again someday. Praying for Mrs. Barbara and the whole family.

“ James knew I was afraid of Bears. So where ever we were camping he would texted about bear mauling in that campground. Of course he made it all up. I can hear him laughing now. 🐻 . You were a good brother-in-law. RIP
