He graduated from Glen Oaks High School; being a life-long LSU Tiger fan, he attended LSU and graduated from Louisiana Tech University with a bachelor's degree in dairy science. After graduation, he managed the dairy and the laboratory at Louisiana Tech and it was during this time that he met and married his wife, Karen. They eventually moved to Baton Rouge where he was the marketing director for Louisiana Animal Breeders Co-Op, and upon his retirement, he worked for NCH Corporation which he dearly loved.

Joe was truly a people person who never met a stranger. Together with his wife; they raised cattle and goats, camped and waterskied. He had a passion for his family, his customers, his livestock, and most importantly, his God.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents; his father-in-law, Robert Havard; and his sister-in-law, Ann (Bailey) Havard.

Joe is survived by his wife of forty-two years, Karen (Havard) Lamb, Jr.; his children, Katie White and Kyle Lamb (Erica); his grandchildren, Abigail White, William White, and Daniel Lamb; his brother, Steve Lamb (Brenda); his brother-in-law, Paul Havard; and his “other” mother, Nadine Havard.

“ Our sweet, precious Joe..... a big man in every sense of the word! He loved big, he felt big, he gave big, he talked big! Mostly, he loved Jesus big! A mentor to vet students at LSU and any other person in need that God put in his path. We are forever grateful for his help the day of our house-raising! What a fun, miraculous day! He kept saying over and over that he had never experienced anything like it! Neither had we! Eugène was so thankful to repay his hard work by helping him move several loads of hay and other farm equipment to Texas. We will be forever thankful that God allowed us to have Joe Lamb in our lives. His love of Karen and their marriage and servant hearts touched so many lives. We will miss you, Joe.

“ Joe was and always will be a cherished person in my heart. One of the most Godly men I've ever known. He was one of the main reasons I continued going to Cross Creek. He fed my soul. He fully accepted me as his sister in Christ. A man who's heart was full of compassion and love. He was truly one of a kind and will be sorely missed by all who knew him. I feel for the rest of the world that had not met him. Rest in peace, Joe.

“ The first day I ever met Mr. Joe at VIP, I knew he was a kind, friendly and easy going person. He always took the time to share stories or just listen to one. I always looked forward to his visits with our shop guys. He had a bag of hot peanuts in hand each time. You don't meet someone like Mr. Joe very often these days and I was blessed to have met him. Please know y'all are in my thoughts and prayers. He will be missed.
