“ I will miss John’s humor and sharing of his opinions on the state of this world. I will fondly remember his pleasure in telling stories of the older generation of Madisonville. I appreciate his dedication to the upkeep of Mt Tabor Cementery. There will never be another John (Wayne) McVey.

“ Well Cuz, we had some good memories. From early childhood when we went camping, to the teens when you would come by and get me to ride around town, those pre-high school baseball games in towns like lola, that time I worked with you and your dad laying brick at the hospital (hardest I ever worked) and then later through Facebook because the miles separated us. I will miss your laugh and the musing you posted about Midway. RIP, my friend.

“ I always knew him as a kind young man in MHS & older gentleman who loved growing & sharing his “maters”. I can only hope that some of my nurses cared for him as I would have—with kindness & compassion. RIP my friend.
