“Joyce was a friend of mine from childhood beginning in the Elwood Methodist Church. We were special friends when my family returned to the community and we were involved with the MYF, church, playing the piano and singing in our homes and church. We continued this friendship during our married lives through visits, telephone calls, exchanging cards, etc. She was a fun and great person.

I extend my sympathy to all of the family. May God bless you during this transition in your life.
