March 10, 1933 - April 20, 2019

Joyce Annette (Gorbet) Yeager; 86 years, 1 month, 10 days; passed away on Saturday; April 20, 2019 in Bryan, TX. The visitation is scheduled for 10AM on Tuesday; April 23, 2019 at Iola Missionary Baptist Church in Iola, TX. The funeral service is scheduled for 11AM on Tuesday; April 23rd at Iola Missionary Baptist Church in Iola, TX with Dr. Tim Owens officiating. The burial will follow at Pankey Cemetery in Iola, TX.

Joyce was born on March 10, 1933 in Iola, TX to Joseph Abner and Myrtle Anna (Worsham) Gorbet. Being an only child, she was devoted to her parents and lived her entire life on the "Gorbet Place" in Iola, TX. Soon after graduating from Iola High School, she went to work at Community State Bank where she worked her entire life serving the residents of her community. She retired from the bank as its vice-president, and her retirement lasted two days, as she immediately went back to work at the bank on a part-time basis.

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents; her infant brother; and her husband, Roland Yeager. She is survived by her cousins, her brother-in-law, and her sisters-in-law.

The family wishes to thank Traditions Hospice and Park Place Assisted Living for the loving care they provided Joyce.

Serving as pallbearers are: Kenny Watson, Berry Willis, Darrell Reed, William Nevill, Kent Dale, and Matt Dale.

“ Joyce and I were very good friends when I was in school at lola. I went to her house almost every day and usually ate with them two or three times a week. I always enjoyed seeing everything that she would order from the Spiegel catalog. She was a caring person.
