“ I want to share two fond memories of Bob that came to mind.
-When we were little and living at Aunt Ardeans, Bob and I shared a bedroom. At bedtime Bob would often sing cowboy songs to put us to sleep. When I'd ask him, "Hey Bob, how 'bout sing me a cowboy song, he'd always ask "Which one would you like to hear - the short version or the long version?" He couldn't have been more than 5. When Bob was around 3 years old, he decided to take a walk. He was starting up Bray Road from our property, wearing his cowboy hat and cowboy boots.
A driver stopped and asked him where he was going, and little Bob told him in all seriousness, "I'm head'n on up the trail. "
I know he is once again "head'n on up the trail " and this time he is infinitely happier.
We will miss Bob, his thoughtfulness and sense of humor, and he will forever be in our hearts and prayers.
With love,
Dick Hill, Marilyn, Jeff and Ann Marie

“Head'n On Up The Road”

I've asked Gary to read what I have written while thinking of our brother Bob, since I cannot be there.

First of all it's hard for me to express the sadness I feel about my brother Bob's death.

BUT

I want to share two warm-hearted memories that came to mind.

-When we were little and living at Aunt Ardeans, Bob and I shared a bedroom. At bedtime Bob would often sing cowboy songs to put us to sleep.
