

Sharon Terry

December 5, 1944 - May 15, 2019

Sharon Terry, mother of Tre Rebstock of Elwood, has gone home to be with the lord, which is the hope that we, as Christians have.

She is preceded in death by her parents, brother, sister, and her husband.

She is survived by a total of 7 children, 15 grandchildren, 11.5 great grandchildren (one is on the way), a brother-in-law, 8 nieces and nephews, 20 great nieces and nephews, and multiple great grand nieces and nephews. Besides these family members, she leaves behind more friends than you can shake a stick at. For mom, there were virtually no strangers, only friends she hadn't met yet.

She was born in Louisiana but changed her money, got her shots, and had her passport stamped when she crossed the Sabine River in the 60's to come to Texas where she would spend the rest of her life. She took care of everyone around her before herself and if she met a person who was unpleasant, her response was to "kill 'em with kindness".

She will be dearly missed, but we rejoice in her new address.

Services will be held at Elwood Baptist Church on Tuesday, May 21, 2019 at 10AM.

She will be interred with her family at Dry Creek Cemetery in Louisiana on Tuesday, May 21, 2019 at 3:30PM

“ Sharon was a good friend from middle school through high school. I remember the fun we had during middle school slumber parties. The most amazing thing was despite living in Texas for the later part of her life, she never forgot the name and life stories of every single person she had ever met in Louisiana. I lived in Texas for off and on for the last fifty years and when she and I drove together to a class reunion, she talked all night about everyone she knew. I was dumbfounded. I wanted to attend her interment but could not due to the flooding rain and my very low handicap van. I loved her very much. Carolyn Stephenson currently living at 911 Charleston Place DeRidder.

“ We would like to express our sincere condolences to you and your family. With deep sympathy, we share your sorrow, after the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us. May God give you the strength to endure the pain you are going through and may he embrace you and comfort your family during this difficult time."Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'" -John 11:25
