“ I first met Maxine in the early 1990's through Cathy Troutman and Hazel Williams. We enjoyed many good times over coffee. She was a treasure.

“ Hope, Mark and families I am so sorry to hear about Maxine. She was a wonderful friend and genealogist. All I can think of now is she now knows all of her family and is celebrating with your Dad and Dawn. I always will remember stopping by and always feeling welcome no matter how busy she was.

“ Ashley nailed when she said: "If you knew her, you loved her." She is so precious to the Cannon family--I often wondered how we got so blessed to have her be a part of our lives. Never forget to stay ready to meet Jesus--because that's how we get to be with her again as well!! Loved her so much--will always remember her with dear thoughts and will miss her! --especially will miss her little funny tales--loved laughing with her!! Prayers for all her family!!

“ Our sincerest condolences. Our heart goes out to each of you during this difficult time. Death leaves a heartache that no one can heal, but love leaves a memory that no one can steal.

“ Mark, Hope and family I am so sorry to hear about Maxine. I always loved looking at her antiques. When I was in missionettes at the Assembly of God church, she was our leader for a while....she let each of us girls pick out something from her collection...I still have my little perfume bottle, it was shaped like a kerosene lamp. It is one of my treasured possessions. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Allyson Alvey
