“ I have nothing but happy memories with my grandpa he always gave us good advice and Torres right from wrong I remember spending her summer and winter vacations with him and him telling us These crazy off-the-wall bedtime stories about El Tacuache I remember me and my brother Junior used to fight to sleep with my grandma and grandpa and he would always say it's my turn my grandpa have the biggest heart in the world he loved everybody and he was always the happiest when anyone would go visit him I remember the summers in the ranch waking up every morning going to pick up the eggs from the chickens and feed in the cows And the pigs and getting on the tractor mowing grass those were my happiest memories and the best moments of my life I love you Welo I wish I could've said one last goodbye before you left but I know you are resting now
