“ As children, Vic and I played on first street in Deer Park TX and walked to San Jacinto elementary school most week days. We rode bicycles to the San Jacinto Monument and ate lunch in the shade of the live oak trees with other playmates from 1st street.

We later connected just a few years ago in Fredericksburg, TX and enjoyed recalling old times and then corresponded via email. He was one of those special "life time" friends from childhood.

God bless Lena, Burke, Elaine and the rest of the family.
